

Smålands Nation in Lund's Platform

The platform is a summary of Smålands' goals and visions and should work as a guiding document for members and elected people. The platform also constitutes Smålands Nation's outward political stances.

Decisions on the platform are handled at the nation meeting.

Smålands Nation shall...

- work for socialism, freely and independently from political parties
- promote political awareness and critical thinking about capitalist society
- work to activate people for the socialist, feminist, and anti-racist struggle through organizing
- counteract oppression and support those fighting against oppression based on gender, sexuality, ethnicity, religion, class, and (dis)ability, etc. within the organization as well as in the student world and society at large
- promote diverse and innovative culture of all forms, partly as a tool for liberation and accommodate for member needs regarding entertainment and social community
- work independently to offer students and other interested people alternatives to monopolistic student life operations
- work to strengthen the democratic rights of students and their influence over their education and university
- support those who are disadvantaged by the current education system and work towards breaking the socioeconomic recruitment bias of universities and colleges
- work for education and research that is critical to capitalism and its manifestations
- support those working for a classless and just society, as well as promote the struggle against capitalism
- support those working against the capitalist exploitation of natural resources and promote their struggle
- only serve plant-based food in our own operations as well as other events that happen in the premises
- support those working against imperialism and promote the struggle against colonial powers and racism as well as for the right of self-determination
- support those working for anti-racism and promote the struggle against the structural and systemic racism in society

- support those working for a feminist society and promote the struggle against sexualized violence, commercial sexual exploitation, and the patriarchy as a whole
- support those working for LGBTQ+ rights and promote the struggle against homophobia and transphobia and cis-hetero normativity
- support international struggles and express solidarity in word and action

'Övergripande målsättning för Smålands Nation' first adopted 1976, changed at nation meetings in 1986, 2012 and 2014. Current platform was adopted at the September 2024 nation meeting and updated at the February 2025 nation meeting.
